Confluence Cluster: SMA 100 (~98.50) + SMA 200 (~98.55) = TIGHT CONFLUENCE within 0.05 DXY. This 98.50-98.55 band is the most critical MA zone. Score: Triple+ cluster = 2 pts (Technical dimension).

Recapture Detection: DXY recently crossed below SMA 20 (~98.40). Flag as RECAPTURE ZONE with +2 bonus. The recaptured SMA becomes most important resistance level.

EUR/USD 1.18	2300M	97.82	CRITICAL

CRITICAL: Tuesday May 5 shows enormous EUR/USD option expiries totaling over 28B EUR. The 1.1635-1.1650 cluster (11.6B EUR) creates a massive magnetic well at DXY 98.55-98.62. The 1.1800 expiry (2.3B EUR) creates a floor at DXY 97.82.

BREAKOUT RISK: MID-RANGE SUPPORT (97.80-98.00) - Failure Probability: 30%. Triggers: Option expiry timing (May 4 10:01 NY Spring Release), macro catalyst alignment (Iran/Gulf tensions, possible JPY intervention). If breaks: Measured Move Target = 97.50-97.65 Key Support Band (Anchored Projection - structural extreme at target).

4. Treasury Auction Analysis (Protocol D)

Source: TreasuryDirect API (https://www.treasurydirect.gov/auctions/announcements-data-results/)

Term	Auction Date	Bid-to-Cover	Yield	Trigger?
2-Year	Apr 27, 2026	2.65x	3.750%	YES - B/C >= 2.6x
5-Year	Apr 27, 2026	2.33x	3.902%	No
7-Year	Apr 28, 2026	2.51x	4.120%	No

VOLATILITY TRIGGER: 2-Year Note auction (Apr 27) with B/C ratio of 2.65x (>= 2.6x threshold). Processing through mandatory 3-step framework:

1. What Is Happening: Strong demand for 2-Year Treasuries (B/C 2.65x) indicates institutional flight to short-duration safety. This is dollar-negative in the medium term as it signals reduced appetite for risk and potential rate cut expectations, but can create short-term USD strength as foreign buyers convert to USD to purchase.

2. When Is It Hitting: The auction was completed Apr 27. Its effect on DXY persisted through the Apr 28-May 1 sell-off (DXY dropped from 98.62 to 98.21). Residual effect likely continues into early May.

3. Execution Play: The strong 2Y auction supports the bearish momentum thesis for DXY. If DXY approaches 98.50-98.55 (Upper Resistance) and stalls, the Treasury demand backdrop favors a downside continuation toward 97.80-98.00. Reference active option walls at EUR/USD 1.1700/1.1750 (DXY 98.30/98.06).

5. ON RRP Facility Status (Protocol E)

[PARTIAL DATA] - NY Fed ON RRP page timed out during fetch. FRED CSV endpoint returned error. Latest available data point from web search indicates ON RRP operations continue with amounts in the low single-digit billions. The facility rate stands at 3.50%. No significant contraction (>=50B) detected. No volatility trigger classification.

6. Economic Calendar & Red Folder Time-Locks (Protocol F)

Source: ForexFactory (https://www.forexfactory.com/calendar?range=may4.2026-may8.2026)

Red Folder Events (High-Impact) - May 4-8, 2026

May 5 (Tue)	AUD	CPI m/m, CPI y/y, Trimmed Mean CPI m/m	HIGH	08:30 AM AEST
May 5 (Tue)	USD	Current Account	HIGH	8:30 AM ET
May 7 (Thu)	USD	Prelim GDP q/q	HIGH	8:30 AM ET

May 7 (Thu)	GBP	BOE Gov Bailey Speaks	HIGH	Time TBA
May 8 (Fri)	USD	Nonfarm Payrolls (if scheduled)	HIGH	8:30 AM ET

Red Folder Time-Lock Rules

Pre-Event Lock: All intra-day scalp systems pause 5 minutes prior to Red Folder timestamp. No new entries.

Post-Event Release: No new market orders until 15 minutes post-release.

Key Risk Windows: Tuesday AUD CPI (impacts AU pair directly + risk sentiment), Thursday US GDP + Core PCE (massive DXY impact - GDP revision + Fed's preferred inflation gauge), Thursday BOE Bailey (GU volatility), Friday NFP if scheduled.

7. EIA Petroleum Status (Protocol G)

[NO RECENT DATA BEFORE MAY 4] - The most recent EIA Weekly Petroleum Status Report before May 4 would be from the week ending Apr 25, 2026. This report was published Apr 29, 2026. No deviation >= 5M barrels identified from available data. No volatility trigger classification.

Source: https://www.eia.gov/petroleum/supply/weekly/ (attempted; pre-May 4 data not directly accessible)

8. Volatility Trigger Summary

Trigger	Protocol	Classification	Status
2Y Treasury Auction B/C=2.65x	D	VOLATILITY TRIGGER	ACTIVE - bearish DXY bias
Iran/Gulf Tensions (Project Freedom)	A/Macro	Macro Catalyst	ACTIVE - USD sentiment risk
Possible JPY Intervention	A/Macro	Macro Catalyst	ACTIVE - USD/JPY volatility
ON RRP Contraction	E	No trigger	NOT ACTIVE
EIA Petroleum Shock	G	No trigger	NOT ACTIVE

9. Breakout Risk Alerts

No zone currently exceeds 50% ZFP threshold for breakout alert. The highest-risk zone is the MID-RANGE SUPPORT (97.80-98.00) at 30% ZFP. However, with the 10:01 AM NY Spring Release on Monday May 4 and multiple macro catalysts (Iran/Gulf, possible JPY intervention), this zone could see elevated failure probability intra-session.

The KEY SUPPORT BAND (97.50-97.72) at 15% ZFP is a HARD WALL with 3+ pillar confirmation, option wall proximity (EUR/USD 1.1800 at DXY 97.82), and analyst consensus. This zone is expected to HOLD unless a major macro catalyst aligns.

11. Macro Shape Chain Map (Engine 2)

======================================================================
MACRO SHAPE CHAIN MAP | WEEK OF MAY 4, 2026
======================================================================

Step 1: Current Shape Identification

Current Shape: SWING SCALPS (SS) | Confidence: HIGH

Anchor Zone: Upper Resistance 98.49-98.70 (HEAVY, 12/14) to KEY SUPPORT 97.50-97.72 (HEAVY, 11/14)

Price Position: 98.21 - within the SS range, closer to equilibrium zone

Rationale: DXY has been oscillating between 97.63 (Apr 17 low) and 99.34 (Apr 27 high) for 3+ weeks. Both bounding zones have ZFP below 30%. Option expiry positioning cages price between large strikes. The 98.50-98.55 MA confluence zone acts as a magnetic center. Weekly range has compressed to 97.72-99.34 with multiple swing highs and lows within it. This is textbook SS.

Step 2: Transition Probability Assessment

Current	Next	Trigger Zone	ZFP	Condition	Probability
SS	BS (downside)	MID-RANGE SUPPORT 97.80-98.00	30%	Zone fails with confirmation	MODERATE
SS	BS (upside)	UPPER RESISTANCE 98.49-98.70	10%	Zone fails with momentum	LOW-MODERATE
SS	WLS	Multiple zones in 97.50-98.70	15-30%	Vol triggers amplify	LOW-MODERATE
SS	SS (continuation)	Both bounding zones hold	<30%	ZFP stays low on boundaries	MODERATE-HIGH

Step 3: Chain Extension with Audit Trail

PRIMARY CHAIN: SS -> BS (downside) -> R -> WL | Chain Confidence: 26%

Step 1: Current = SS | Zone 98.49-98.70 (HEAVY, 12/14) ZFP=10% + Zone 97.50-97.72 (HEAVY, 11/14) ZFP=15%
-> Prediction: SS continues early week (Mon-Tue) with option cage pinning. Thu GDP/PCE catalyst may trigger BS.
-> Trigger: Macro catalyst (GDP/PCE) + option expiry Spring Release
-> Rationale: Bounding zone ZFP < 30% supports SS continuation. But Thursday's Red Folder events (GDP + Core PCE) create a high-probability trigger for directional breakout. If GDP misses or PCE comes in hot, downside BS toward 97.50-97.72.
Step 2: Current = BS (downside) | Target Zone 97.50-97.72 (HEAVY, 11/14) ZFP=15%
-> Prediction: BS -> R | Recovery at Key Support Band (97.50-97.72)
-> Trigger: Price reaches HEAVY support with ZFP=15% (zone will hold initially)

-> Rationale: Key Support Band has 6 confirmed levels, analyst consensus, and repeated extreme magnet. Zone will produce at minimum a brief Recovery.

Step 3: Current = R | Recovery at 97.50-97.72

-> Prediction: R -> WL | Whiplash at 98.50-98.70 or at 98.00-98.30

-> Trigger: Price rebounds to mid-range IP zone, encounters friction

-> Rationale: Recovery from 97.50-72 will face the 98.00 round number, the 98.06-98.30 option cage zone, and ultimately the 98.49-98.70 HEAVY resistance. Whiplash rejection at 98.30-98.50 is the most probable outcome.

Step 4: Alternative Chain Analysis

ALTERNATIVE CHAIN: SS -> WLS -> BS (upside) | Chain Confidence: 15%

Decision Zone: UPPER RESISTANCE 98.49-98.70 | HEAVY (12/14) | ZFP: 10%

-> If Decision Zone HOLDS (ZFP remains <15%): Primary chain activates (SS -> BS downside)

-> If Decision Zone FAILS (ZFP increases to >30% due to macro catalyst): Alternative chain activates

-> Alternative activation condition: Thursday GDP/PCE significantly beats expectations, sparking USD rally that breaks 98.70. This would produce WLS between 98.70-99.34 before resolving to upside BS toward 99.49.

Step 5: Session/Day-Level Decomposition

Monday May 4 | Predicted Dominant Shape: SS | Confidence: HIGH

Asian (6PM-2AM ET): SS - Range-bound between 97.90-98.40. Light institutional flow.

London (2AM-8AM ET): SS with slight downside bias. Option cage (EUR/USD 1.1700-1.1750, DXY 98.06-98.30) begins pinning effect.

NY Pre-Cut (8AM-10AM ET): SS (tight) - Dealers delta-hedge into option expiry. Price pinned near DXY 98.06-98.30 (EUR/USD 1.1700-1.1750 strikes, total 2.73B EUR).

NY Spring Release (10:01 AM ET): DECISIVE - If 98.06-98.30 cage holds: SS continues with mild range extension. If cage breaks downside: SS->BS toward 97.80-98.00. If cage breaks upside: brief spike to 98.50 area then rejection.

NY Post-Cut (10:01AM-5PM ET): SS continuation most likely. Free movement within 97.80-98.50 band.

Active Option Cages: EUR/USD 1.1700 (1.13B EUR) + 1.1750 (1.6B EUR) = DXY 98.06-98.30

Anchor Points: Ceiling: 98.49-98.70 (HEAVY, 12/14, ZFP 10%) | Floor: 97.80-98.00 (MODERATE, 7/14, ZFP 30%)

Trade Setup A (Primary): If DXY rallies to 98.45-98.50 and stalls at SMA 100/200 confluence. SHORT DXY. Entry: 98.45-98.50. Stop: 98.72 (above SMA 50). Target: 98.06 (option cage floor). R:R = 0.44:1 to 1.9:1. Confidence: MODERATE.

Trade Setup B (Alternative): If DXY drops to 97.80-97.90 at London open. LONG DXY. Entry: 97.85. Stop: 97.65 (below key support). Target: 98.30 (option cage ceiling). R:R = 2.0:1. Confidence: MODERATE.

Tuesday May 5 | Predicted Dominant Shape: SS -> Possible WLS | Confidence: MODERATE

MASSIVE option expiries: EUR/USD cluster from 1.1605 to 1.1800, totaling over 28B EUR. The 1.1635-1.1650 cluster (11.6B EUR) at DXY 98.55-98.62 creates an enormous magnetic well. The 1.1800 expiry (2.3B EUR) at DXY 97.82 creates a floor.

Red Folder: AUD CPI (8:30 AM AEST) - impacts risk sentiment and AU pair directly.

The sheer size of Tuesday's expiries creates a WLS scenario - price will oscillate violently between the major strikes on LTFs while appearing as SS on 4H.

Anchor Points: Ceiling: 98.55-98.62 (option wall, 11.6B EUR) | Floor: 97.82 (option wall, 2.3B EUR)

Wednesday May 6 | Predicted Dominant Shape: SS | Confidence: MODERATE-HIGH

[NO OTC EXPIRY DATA] - No option expiry image available for Wednesday. IL levels derived from structural pillars only (no options-derived dimension). Post-Tuesday massive expiry, price likely in Recovery or continuation SS.

Key level to watch: the 98.50-98.55 MA confluence. If Tuesday's Spring Release cleared this zone, Wednesday sees SS in a new range. If not, SS continues in the 97.80-98.50 band.

Thursday May 7 | Predicted Dominant Shape: BS Trigger Window | Confidence: MODERATE

RED FOLDER TRIFECTA: US Prelim GDP q/q + Core PCE Price Index m/m (8:30 AM ET) + BOE Gov Bailey Speaks.

This is the highest-probability shape transition window of the week. GDP and Core PCE are the most market-moving USD events. Combined with the option cage dynamics from earlier in the week, this creates a decisive breakout setup.

If GDP misses expectations: SS -> BS (downside) toward 97.50-97.72. The bearish momentum thesis activates.

If GDP/PCE beats expectations: SS -> BS (upside) toward 99.05-99.34. Alternative chain activates.

Pre-Event Lock: 8:25 AM ET - all scalp systems pause. Post-Event: 8:45 AM ET - resume with directional bias.

Friday May 8 | Predicted Dominant Shape: R or WL | Confidence: MODERATE

Friday resolves the Thursday directional move. If Thursday produced BS (downside), Friday sees Recovery at 97.50-72 or continued BS toward 96.88-97.00. If Thursday produced BS (upside), Friday sees WL rejection at 99.05-99.34 or continued BS toward 99.49.

Friday Spring Release is the last major shape transition opportunity of the week.

12. Pair-Specific Analysis (AU/GU/EU)

AUD/USD (AU)

Spot: 0.7206 | Monday Option Cages: 0.7065 (A$1.5B CRITICAL), 0.7160 (A$725M), 0.7200 (A$1.0B CRITICAL), 0.7250 (A$810M)

The A$1.5B expiry at 0.7065 creates a significant floor. The A$1.0B at 0.7200 (near current spot) creates the primary pinning target. Tuesday's AUD CPI release (Red Folder) is the key catalyst - a hot CPI print could push AU toward 0.7250 (A$810M ceiling), while a soft print opens downside to 0.7160-0.7065. The investinglive article notes the 0.7200 expiry 'does not tie to technical significance' and expects 'more muted' impact.

Macro Shape: SS early week, with Tuesday CPI as the directional trigger. Upside BS toward 0.7250-0.7300 if hot CPI. Downside BS toward 0.7100-0.7065 if soft CPI.

GBP/USD (GU)

Spot: 1.3590 | Monday Option Cages: None | Tuesday: 1.3575 (604M EUR SIGNIFICANT)

No Monday expiries for GBP/USD. The Tuesday 1.3575 strike (604M) provides minor magnetic pull. Thursday's BOE Gov Bailey speech (Red Folder) is the primary catalyst. GU is trading near recent highs with DXY weakness providing a bid. Key resistance at 1.3650-1.3700 (recent highs). Support at 1.3480-1.3500 (H.10 data support).

Macro Shape: SS with upside bias. Bailey speech on Thursday is the directional catalyst. If hawkish: BS toward 1.3700+. If dovish: WL rejection at 1.3650, reversal to 1.3480.

EUR/USD (EU)

Spot: 1.1731 | Monday Option Cages: 1.1700 (1.13B CRITICAL), 1.1750 (1.6B CRITICAL) | Tuesday: 1.1635-1.1650 (11.6B CRITICAL), 1.1800 (2.3B CRITICAL)

EUR/USD is the dominant pair for DXY (62.4% weight). The option architecture this week is extraordinary. Monday's cage between 1.1700-1.1750 pins price tightly. Tuesday's massive 28B+ expiry cluster creates the most important option event of the week. The 200-day MA at 1.1675 provides the key floor. The investinglive article notes 'floor price remains closer to the 200-day moving average of 1.1675 while topside momentum is likely capped closer to the 1.1800 mark.'

Macro Shape: Mon: SS pinned between 1.1700-1.1750. Tue: WLS between 1.1635-1.1800. Wed: R from Tue's expiry resolution. Thu: BS triggered by GDP/PCE (if USD data misses, EU rallies toward 1.1800-1.1850; if beats, EU drops toward 1.1635-1.1675). Fri: WL or R depending on Thu's direction.
